

Wine Consultant

MW Wines is currently seeking an experienced wine person to join our team during an exciting phase of growth. As Australia's largest independent wine auction house and supplier of fine and rare wines, the successful candidate will serve as a wine consultant, assisting in all of the wine aspects of the business, from wine auctions and wine storage to assisting with retail sales of some of the great wines of the world - from Australian icons such as Penfolds and Henschke, to the icons of France including DRC, Rousseau, Raveneau and Petrus.

The Role

- An integral part of the MW Wine Auctions, Sales and Storage team, assisting with all operating aspects of the business, including providing auction quotes, cataloguing wine to auction or storage, taking payments, receiving, picking and packing stock and assisting with retail sales activities
- The role is full time, working business hours Monday - Friday and about one Saturday morning per month

Skills and Experience

The successful candidate will:

- demonstrate a strong working knowledge of wine from all over the world
- have a strong customer service ethic
- be a team player that is always ready to assist in any aspect of a dynamic business
- likely come from a wine retail background

About MW Wines

- One of Australia's leading suppliers of rare and fine wine, specialising in current and back vintage icons from the old and new world
- Australia's largest independent wine auction house, selling in excess of $4 million worth of wine by auction annually
- Based in Collingwood, MW Wines runs a climate controlled wine storage facility which also provides wine storage services to a wide range of customers
- We currently have a small team of 7 people who are all passionate and knowledgeable wine professionals
