White Burgundy Offer – 2014 Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey St.-Aubin

We are delighted to be able to offer the 2014 St.-Aubin whites from Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey. These wines herald from a White Burgundy vintage widely considered the best since 2010.

Jancis Robinson tasted the 2014 St.-Aubin's from PYCM and adorned them all with fantastic reviews. Indeed, she rated the Colin Morey 'Les Combes' and 'Les Champlots' as highly as his Grand Cru 'Chevalier-Montrachet' and 'Corton Charlemagne'!! This great quote from Jancis perfectly summarizes the quality of the 2014 Colin-Morey St.-Aubin whites:

“These Colin-Morey St.-Aubins show how ridiculous it is to value Meursault and the Montrachet villages above St.-Aubin. Very serious indeed. He deserves an award from the St.-Aubinois for showing just how fine St.-Aubin can be.”

As well as the stunning 2014's, we also have a small selection of back-vintage St.-Aubin whites from Colin-Morey which offer excellent value. These can be viewed in the order form below.

All wines are 750ml bottles and are available now for pick-up or delivery. Should you wish to enquire about any of these wines, please call Stuart or Nick on (03) 9419 6990, or email stuart@mwwines.com.au or nick@mwwines.com.au.

The Wines

2014 Bourgogne Blanc

$52 per bottle

“Funky and mealy but with lovely texture. 16+ Points/Drink 2016-2019.” – Jancis Robinson

“Colin-Morey's very dry but thoroughly ripe Bourgogne Blanc offers lemon and orange notes complicated by hazelnut, and atypical breadth and stuffing for its category.” – Stephen Tanzer, Vinous Media

2014 St-Aubin ‘Le Banc’

$72 per bottle

“Rich and jewelery. Some honeyed notes on the nose. Great freshness and delight. Juicy and delineated. Nothing lacking. Chalky finish. Wonderful for a village wine. 17 Points/Drink 2017-2022.” – Jancis Robinson

“Bright, pale yellow. Ripe aromas of pear and lemon. Fat and sweet but nicely framed by lively acidity and underlying minerality. Finishes fruity and firm, with good length. 87-89 Points.” – Stephen Tanzer, Vinous Media

2014 St.-Aubin 1er Cru ‘Les Combes’

$90 per bottle

“Near Chassagne. Quite reductive nose but jewelery fruit. Lots of pzazz and roundness. Really flattering. Who could fail to love this – already?! Grapefruit-peel finish. 17.5 Points/Drink 2016-2024.” – Jancis Robinson

2014 St.-Aubin 1er Cru ‘Les Champlots’

$99 per bottle

“Fresh and straightforward with good fruit concentration. Lots to chew on. Admirably long. 17.5 Points/Drink 2017-2026.” – Jancis Robinson

“Musky aromas of lemon curd, white truffle and earth. Sweeter and suppler on entry than the Le Banc and more saline in the middle palate, with a distinctly cool calcaire quality giving it enticing stony lift. Finishes tactile and persistent, with slightly edgy lemony acidity. This gripping Saint-Aubin wine, from 30-year-old vines, is carrying just 12.2% alcohol. 89-91 Points.” – Stephen Tanzer, Vinous Media

2014 St.-Aubin 1er Cru ‘La Chateniere’

$109 per bottle

“Very pale straw. Something a little floral about the nose of this. Rather open and broad at first and then it tightens up on the finish. Pungent. Long – builds on the finish. 17+ Points/Drink 2018-2026.” – Jancis Robinson

“(these vines are located just below Champlots): Bright, pale yellow. Precise and pungent on the nose, offering scents of lemon curd, smoke and mint along with a sexy note of reduction. Sweet, fine-grained and gentle yet also bright and juicy, despite being made from vines in a warm spot that's protected from wind. Nicely deep and long. Colin-Morey told me he ages about 90% of his Saint-Aubin wines in 350-liter barrels, between 33% and 40% of them new. 90-91 Points” – Stephen Tanzer, Vinous Media

2014 St.-Aubin 1er Cru ‘Les Meurgers des Dents de Chiens’

$109 per bottle

South facing vineyard on a plateau overlooking the Grand and 1er Cru vineyards of Puligny-Montrachet.
