2014 Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey

2014 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru 'Morgeot Fairendes'

$175 per bottle

"On the palate the relatively full-bodied flavors possess more size and weight yet they're more finely textured while culminating in a complex, palate coating and slightly firmer finish. This clean and dry effort should reward the better part of a decade of cellar time yet be approachable after only 3 to 4. 90-92 Points/Drink 2021+" – Allen Meadows, Burghound

2014 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru 'Les Baudines'

$175 per bottle

"This too is attractively fresh and bright with its elegant, cool and pure nose of green apple, lemon zest and white flower scents. There is excellent intensity and delineation to the overtly mineral-inflected flavors that deliver fine length on the markedly dry but not really austere finale. 90-92 Points/Drink 2021+" – Allen Meadows, Burghound

"Bright, pale yellow. Aromas of yellow plum and lemon. At once tactile and juicy in the mouth, showing superb definition and chewy minerality to the lemon and floral flavors. Still youthfully tight but finishes savory, perfumed and long, with excellent lift. 91-93 Points." – Stephen Tanzer, Vinous Media

2014 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru 'Les Chenevottes'

$175 per bottle

"An ultra-fresh and citrus-inflected nose speaks of white orchard fruit petrol and discreet floral nuances. There is fine intensity to the racy and delicious middle weight flavors that possess a rounded mouth feel yet retaining lovely detail on the complex and lingering finish. 90-92 Points/Drink 2020+" – Allen Meadows, Burghound

"Fresh and delicate. Rather playful and floral. Softer than many of his wines. Though still lots of tension. 17+ Points/Drink 2018-2026." – Jancis Robinson

2014 Meursault 'Narvaux'

$135 per bottle

"There is excellent intensity and detail to the racy and almost pungently mineral-driven flavors that possess a lilting, even caressing mouth feel on the clean, dry and focused finale. This is an excellent Meursault villages and worthy of your interest. 89-91 Points/Drink 2020+" – Allen Meadows, Burghound

"Bright, pale yellow. A note of musky reduction to the aromas of lemon, menthol and stone. Shows a strong crushed-rock character in the mouth as well as a honeyed nuance. The menthol quality repeats on the edgy finish. 89-92 Points." – Stephen Tanzer, Vinous Media

2014 Meursault 1er Cru 'Charmes'

$229 per bottle

"A pretty and beautifully layered nose expresses notes of pear, hazelnut, apple and lemongrass. The notably rich and generously proportioned full-bodied flavors possess both fine power and punch while delivering excellent depth and length. This is a classic Charmes that should be approachable young yet be capable of rewarding 6 to 9 years of cellar time. 90-93 Points/Drink 2021+" – Allen Meadows, burghound

"Bright, pale yellow. Complex aromas of lemon curd, peach and vanilla; at once reduced and racy. Fine-grained, concentrated and minerally, showing a harmonious balance of sweetness and acidity. 91-94 Points." – Stephen Tanzer, Vinous Media

2014 Meursault 1er Cru 'Genevrières'

$249 per bottle

"A softly spicy and more elegant nose displays a subtle exoticism on the cool acacia blossom and white fruit aromas. There is a lovely sense of underlying tension to the more evidently mineral-driven flavors that don't possess the same richness or volume but are markedly finer on the equally persistent finish. This exquisitely refined effort is a Genevrières of finesse and grace. Sweet spot. 91-93 Points/Drink 2021+" – Allen Meadows, Burghound

"Spicy and dense. Well sculpted. Lots of density and potential. Very long and vibrato. 17.5+/Drink 2019-2028." – Jancis Robinson

2014 Meursault 1er Cru 'Perrieres'

$259 per bottle

"There is a beguiling freshness to the pure, detailed and racy medium weight flavors that also possess that lovely sense of underlying tension that makes the flavors and finish come alive in the mouth, particularly on the beautifully well-delineated finish. 90-93 Points/Drink 2021+" – Allen Meadows, Burghound

"Musky aroma of pineapple and wet stone. Boasts compelling sweetness buffered by mineral-rich dry extract and a compelling saline quality. Like a mouthful of liquefied rock. Most impressive on the tactile, sappy, explosively long finish, which spreads out horizontally to saturate the palate. 92-95 Points." – Stephen Tanzer, Vinous Media
