2015 Giant Steps Pinot Noir

"Hooleydooley. If ya like ya pinot noir, and well, most of us do, then ya gunna like the Giant Steps 2015s. Perfect storm. How good are these vineyards?" - Mike Bennie, Winefront

2015 Giant Steps 'Sexton Vineyard' Pinot Noir

$50 per Bottle

"Shares the superb colour of its siblings; here, generosity takes the stage with richness and tannins woven into the superabundant red and black fruits by invisible mending. A brilliant wine, the lower Yarra Valley refusing to take a backward step. 97 points/drink to 2027" – James Halliday

"Sweet maraschino cherry, faint fennel, sniff of briar, exotic spice, touch of vanilla bean, but sweet as all that sounds, it's more amaro sour-sweet than anything. And superb. Such volume of perfume too. Cashmere on the tongue. Far out. 96 Points/Drink 2016-2030." – Mike Bennie, Winefront

2015 Giant Steps 'Applejack Vineyard' Pinot Noir

$50 per Bottle

"Significantly deeper colour than prior vintages, likewise depth of fruit; the bouquet and palate are driven by black and red cherry fruit of exceptional generosity but with an unusual touch of dark chocolate. Small wonder Giant Steps says this is its best vintage yet. 97 points/drink to 2027" – James Halliday

"There's dark cherry, a faint sniff of cola, fennel, pepper too. The palate is awash and ablaze, bright and lively, shows a flighty sheet of tannin that drapes across the mouth then starts to tug like a fist closing on silk. The finish is pulled tight with that fine tannin, caraway seed spice, light herbal notes. It's beautiful. 96 Points/Drink 2016-2030." – Mike Bennie, Winefront

2015 Giant Steps 'Primavera Vineyard' Pinot Noir

$50 per Bottle

"Haunting perfume of undergrowth, decaying flowers, pot pourri, rose water, pickled cherries, pepper, earth. It's elemental, guttural and wild to inhale. The palate has a swirl of dark cherry fruitiness, but again, savoury, earthy, briary character takes over. It crackles and swerves in the palate – there's juiciness but it's ribbed with tannin and feels alive with crisp acidity. Long, so long, untamed, unkempt, but beautiful in its sweeping expression. 96 Points/Drink 2016-2030." – Mike Bennie, Winefront

2015 Giant Steps 'Lusatia Park Vineyard' Pinot Noir

$50 per Bottle

"Superb colour; the ultra-fragrant/scented bouquet is picked up unceremoniously by the brilliant palate and dispatched to the boundary. Takes the concept of elegant generosity to another level with more movement in the chorus of red fruit flavours than you might think possible. Combines elegance with spicy, savoury intensity. 97 points/drink to 2027" – James Halliday
