Hurley Vineyard

The annual release of the single site Hurley Vineyard Pinot Noir is a significant event on the wine calendar. These thoughtful hand crafted wines gain complexity and depth each year and quietly go on their way making some of the most thought provoking and high end wines of the region. On the back of two excellent previous vintages, the '14's, as a bracket of wines, show terrific purity, depth of spice, complexity and incredible perfume. These are the whole package.

2014 Hurley Vineyard 'Lodestone' Pinot Noir $55 per Bottle

“A spine of vibrant acidity sets off pure fruit flavours of cherries and raspberries, both sweet and sour, balanced by silky fruit tannins and subtle French oak, ending long, clean and fresh. A study in purity, line and precision, this Lodestone was harvested spot-on in (for us) a good vintage. To 2024 and beyond. 200 cases made.” – Hurley Vineyard

2014 Hurley Vineyard 'Hommage' Pinot Noir $55 per Bottle

“This is a pure, generous and expressive Hommage which has benefitted from the moderate conditions. The initial impression is sweet but firm tannins dry the palate and leave the exit clean and satisfying. The nose is plums, liquor cherry, vanilla, cinnamon, dried herbs and lavender. Fuller than Lodestone, the palate is luscious, mouthfilling and lingering. Here we find dark plums with a lick of creaminess, balanced by the lively acidity of the vintage and well-integrated oak, nuanced by savouriness. Alc/vol 13.6%. To 2026 and beyond. 200 cases made.” – Hurley Vineyard

2014 Hurley Vineyard 'Garamond' Pinot Noir $69 per Bottle

“The nose is complex, liquor cherries, cake spice, forest floor and pot pourri. Somewhat more masculine than previous Garamonds, this smells more of the vineyard than the boudoir. On the palate it's taut and precise wine with a compelling narrative. The same vibrant acidity provides a strong frame for intense flavours of red fruits (especially cherries) and meatiness, but with singular concentration, silky lingering tannins and a flaring finish. A firm fist in a velvet glove from maturing vines. To 2028 and beyond. 200 cases made.” – Hurley Vineyard
